

DJM welcome new Director to the Board

Douglas-Jones Mercer Solicitors (DJM)
are pleased to appoint Helen Kelly to their Board of Directors.

Helen originally trained to become a Solicitor at a local firm in Swansea before joining DJM in August 2004. Helen joined DJM when their offices were based in St Helen's Road and has seen the firm continue to grow after moving to Swansea Vale over a decade ago.

Helen deals with an extensive residential property client base locally and nationally including some complex and high value residential property matters. During her career to date she has dealt with transactions concerning some high value homes in Wales and England.

"I am delighted to be appointed a Director at DJM at a particularly exciting time and I look forward to developing the firm's outstanding reputation" remarked Helen. "It's been a lifelong aspiration to become a Director at DJM and my aim is to work closely with the firm's excellent team of Directors, to help develop the firm by concentrating on clients, their expectations, and to provide them with excellent client service."

Barry Davies, DJM's Practice Director, commented, "I remember recruiting Helen in 2004 and her enthusiasm to be joining us. She is a very committed and driven member of our team and we are delighted to be welcoming her to the Board."

The firm prides itself on reputation for delivering a quality service at a sensible cost and as such DJM represents and advises some of the largest and most successful businesses and individuals in South West Wales and beyond with many regional and national clients.

With nearly 75 years' experience the firm has a solid base and continues to build on its own success. The individuals within DJM are both professional and friendly in their approach and consequently are confident that DJM can make a significant positive impact for their clients.
